

FEDERATION OF FINNISH LEARNED SOCIETIES

FINNISH HISTORICAL SOCIETY

UNIVERSITY
OF TAMPERE

UNIVERSITY OF HELSINKI

ARKISTOLAITOS
ARKIVVERKET

ALFRED
KORDELININ
YLEINEN EDISTYS-
JA SIVISTYSRAHASTO

COMITÉ INTERNATIONAL
DES SCIENCES HISTORIQUES

INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE
OF HISTORICAL SCIENCES

GLOBAL CHALLENGES FOR HISTORICAL RESEARCH

Conference with international experts (from the International Committee of Historical Sciences)
12.-13.5.2011

House of Sciences and Letters
Kirkkokatu 6, Helsinki

Federation of Finnish Learned Societies, Finnish
Historical Society, University of Tampere, University of Helsinki, National Archives of Finland, Alfred Kordelin
Foundation

Programme

Thursday 12.5. 2011
House of Sciences and Letters, Kirkkokatu 6

8.30-9.30 Registration
9.00 Coffee

Morning Session 9.30-12.30
Opening Marjatta Hietala, Professor, University of Tampere, President of the International Committee for Historical Sciences

National Histories: Global and Local Challenges

Chair: Marjatta Hietala
Robert Frank, Professor, Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne
Transnational History of Nations
Jie-Hyun Lim, Professor, Hanyang University, Korea
Victimhood Nationalism in National History Writings - Comparative Perspectives on Europe and East Asia
Holger Weiss, Professor, Åbo Akademi University
Global Ambitions, Structural Constraints and Marginality as a Choice: Anticolonialism and Class or Race Solidarity?

Commentators: Marja Jalava, Docent, Academy Research Fellow, University of Helsinki
Tao Venzaho, Professor, Institute of American Studies
Chinese Academy of Social Sciences, China University

Lunch

Afternoon session 13.30-16.30

Welfare State: Past, Present and Future

Chair: Marjaana Niemi, Docent, Academy Research Fellow, University of Tampere
Pauli Kettunen, Professor, University of Helsinki
The Nordic Welfare State - Historical Foundations and Future Challenges
Pertti Haapala, Professor, University of Tampere
Modernization of Finland in Global Perspectives
Pim van Boer, Professor, University of Amsterdam
National Identities and World Heritage

Commentators: Hilda Sabato, Professor, University of Buenos Aires, Argentina
Tapio Bergholm, Docent, University of Helsinki

17.00 Reception at National Archives of Finland, address: Rauhankatu 17

Programme

Friday 13.5.
Morning session 9.00 -11.30

Roads for Prosperity: Education, Equality, Culture

Chair: Ann-Catrin Östman, Senior Lecturer, Åbo Akademi University
Karen Offen, Senior Scholar, the Clayman Institute for Gender Research, Stanford University
Some Thoughts on the Potential for Research in Women's & Gender History in the Age of the Global Internet
Laurent Tissot, Professor, University of Neuchâtel
Tourism: A Road to Gender Equality? Historical Reflections

Commentators: Aura Korppi-Tommola, Professor, Federation of Finnish Learned Societies
Tiina Kinnunen, Docent, Senior Lecturer, University of Eastern Finland

Concluding remarks: Marjatta Hietala

Lunch

For participation please confirm your participation by the 5th May 2011 to Merja Lahtinen, conference secretary (merja.lahtinen@uta.fi).

Registration is 20 euros (15 euros for students and PhD students) to cover coffees, buffet lunches and reception. Payment should be made to:

Suomen Historiallinen Seura
IBAN FI33 1572 3000 2003 86
BIC NDEAFIHH

Please write your name and title of the event CISH in the message.